
Now

- Initial archaeology investigations complete on site
- Infrastructure works start including utilities, roads and access junctions
- Further ecology and biodiversity surveys
- Housebuilders start on site
- Opening of first neighbourhood park for public use
- Community development worker in place (before first resident moves in)
- Highways and public transport improvement
- First residents move in
- Early community facility (before the first 25 homes are occupied)
- First nursery (before the first 200 homes are occupied)
- Visitor hub opens at countryside park
- First primary school (before the first 400 homes are occupied)
- Walking and cycling route created (connecting to Manydown town centre)
- First permanent community space and pre-school (before the first 450 homes are occupied)

By 500 homes occupied